NOTING that the Prosecutor was also requested to follow the official numbering of the record of the situation and of the case and to include all of his proposals in one single document replacing his previous proposals;

³ ICC-02/04-01/05-78.

⁴ ICC-02/04-01/05-89-tENG.

⁵ ICC-02/04-05-135.

NOTING that the Order further requested that VWU, in respect of the proposals made by the Prosecutor, submit its observations on the treatment of the corresponding documents in the record both of the situation and of the case, and on the possibility of unsealing said documents, including the need, if any, to maintain the redactions proposed by the Prosecutor prior to unsealing, and the scope of the redactions or the need for further redactions;

NOTING the Prosecutor's public observations submitted in its "Prosecution's Submission of Observations on the Further Unsealing of Documents of the Record", dated 2 August 2007 and which included three under seal, ex parte annexes;

NOTING VWU's observations submitted in its "Observations of the Victims and Witnesses Unit on the Further Unsealing of documents of the Record", dated 24 August 2007, to the Chamber under seal, ex parte, available to the Office of the Prosecutor only;

NOTING that the Prosecutor has not filed any further possible observations subsequent to those filed by VWU;

CONSIDERING articles 57(3)(c), 67(1) and 68(1) of the Rome Statute ("the Statute"), rules 15, 87 and 88 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence ("the Rules"), regulations 8 and 42(3) of the Regulations of the Court and regulation 14 of the Regulations of the Registry;

NOTING the Chamber's functions and powers under article 57(3)(c) of the Rome Statute ("the Statute") relating to the protection and privacy of victims and witnesses and under article 68 of the Statute;

CONSIDERING that article 67(1) of the Statute enshrines the principle that proceedings before the Court shall be public;

NOTING that, pursuant to article 68(1) of the Statute, “[t]he Court shall take appropriate measures to protect the safety, physical and psychological well-being, dignity and privacy of victims and witnesses”;

NOTING that the protection of victims and witnesses may render redactions necessary prior to the publication of certain documents, and that the Chamber has the power to make redactions in order to protect victims and witnesses pursuant to articles 57(3)(c) and 68(1) of the Statute and rule 87 of the Rules;

NOTING that the Chamber has also ensured the redaction of any detail or information which, if disclosed, could jeopardise operational effectiveness, or the effectiveness of strategies or measures taken by the Court for the protection of a victim or witness;

NOTING that rule 15 of the Rules requires the Registrar to set up a database “containing all the particulars of each case brought before the Court, subject to any order of a judge or Chamber providing for the non-disclosure of any document or information, and to the protection of sensitive personal data”, and that, “[i]nformation on the database shall be available to the public in the working languages of the Court”;

NOTING, furthermore, that pursuant to regulation 8(c) of the Regulations of the Court, all “[d]ecisions and orders of the Court and other particulars of each case brought before the Court as described in rule 15” shall be published on the website of the Court;

NOTING that the Chamber has considered it necessary to redact any detail or information which could result in the disclosure of the identity or the location of victims and witnesses, as well as any other detail which, if revealed, could jeopardise their security;

NOTING that upon receipt of divergent proposals from the Office of the Prosecutor and VWU, the Chamber decided to take a protective approach in light of the unstable situation in the field and in accordance with its obligations under articles 57(3)(c) and 68(1) of the Statute, whilst ensuring the principle that proceedings before the Court shall be public;

CONSIDERING that the Chamber considers that exercising the Court's mandate to protect victims and witnesses under article 68(1) of the Statute may justify redactions to protect information sources or to safeguard their future use where such information sources contribute to the exercise of this protection mandate;

CONSIDERING that the observations submitted enabled the Single Judge to form her own opinion of the redactions to make, whilst taking into account the foregoing principles and considerations, in particular the protection of victims and witnesses having regard to the situation in the field, as well as the principle that proceedings before the Court shall be public;

CONSIDERING that in his observations, the Prosecutor refers to a limited number of documents in the record both of the situation and of the case;

CONSIDERING that VWU based its observations on the treatment proposed by the Prosecutor on this limited number of documents, reiterating the official numbering of each document so that reference may more readily be made thereto;

CONSIDERING that the Prosecutor proposed a treatment and, in particular, made observations on the unsealing of certain documents filed in the record both of the situation and of the case before the Appeals Chamber and certain decisions rendered by that chamber;

CONSIDERING that under regulation 42(3) of the Regulations of the Court, any application to vary a protective measure shall be made to the chamber which issued the order and that, in the instant case, the documents and decisions in relation to which the Prosecutor is requesting treatment, are before the Appeals Chamber;

CONSIDERING, accordingly, that the Appeals Chamber alone is competent to order the unsealing of documents filed with it and of the decisions taken by it;

CONSIDERING that, by decision ICC-02/04-01/05 OA dated 04 February 2008, the Appeals Chamber made public or public in a redacted version the documents filed with it and which were referred to in the Prosecutor's observations submitted to the Single Judge on 2 August 2007;

CONSIDERING that among such documents, the Prosecutor submitted an application, ICC-02/05-01/04-85-US-Exp dated 11 May 2006, entitled "Application to Suspend or Stay Consideration of Prosecutor's Application for leave to Appeal" to Pre-Trial Chamber II and simultaneously⁶ submitted to the Appeals Chamber an application to the same effect entitled "Application for Appeals Chamber to Give Suspensive Effect to Prosecutor's Application for Extraordinary Review" registered as ICC-02/05-01/04-84-US-Exp;

CONSIDERING that by decision ICC-02/04-01/05 OA of 4 February 2008, the Appeals Chamber made document ICC-02/05-01/04-84-US-Exp public;

CONSIDERING, accordingly, that the Single Judge considers that the similar document filed with Pre-Trial Chamber II as ICC-02/05-01/04-85-US-Exp should be treated in like manner;

CONSIDERING, furthermore, that document ICC-02/04-01/05-81-US Annex 1, Letter from the Registrar to Mr Tibaruha, Solicitor General, dated 7 April 2006, Re: Dominic ONGWEN, has already been made public in redacted form as ICC-02/04-
